SUBJECT: RUSSIA'S BUDGET TRANSPARENCY

REF: STATE 16737

The Government of the Russian Federation (GOR) makes its budget and subsequent amendments publicly available in print and on the Finance Ministry's website. Not all budget line items, however, are included in the publicly available document. The undisclosed items fall under the heading of "National Security Issues" and include various defense and intelligence expenditures. The USG no longer provides program support to enhance the GOR's fiscal transparency, nor do other countries or multilateral institutions. Russia has, however, agreed to let the IMF report on the country's compliance with standards covering fiscal transparency.
